ClearPath Government Affairs Director Joins Women’s Energy Resource Council Board of Directors

Washington, DC – Thursday, November 19, 2020 – ClearPath is pleased to congratulate Colleen Moss for being appointed to the Women’s Energy Resource Council (WERC) Board of Directors.

WERC, launched in 2010, is a DC-based nonprofit that promotes the exchange of ideas and perspectives on energy policy among women energy professionals from both the public and private sector.

“We are incredibly excited for Colleen to join such a dedicated team of community leaders committed to fostering educational and networking opportunities for women in the energy sector,” said Rich Powell, Executive Director of ClearPath. “ClearPath is a proud platinum sponsor of WERC, and we value the opportunity to engage with policymakers and staff, while supporting the advancement of women who are focused on energy policy. Colleen will make a tremendous impact on this group.”

Colleen is a Government Affairs Director at ClearPath, where she works to advance federal policy on clean energy innovation issues and leads external engagement with the utility industry. She joined ClearPath from Duke Energy, where she worked on a host of issues, including tax, energy, environment and labor, to help deliver a cleaner energy future.

Prior to Duke, Colleen handled tax and banking issues at the Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association (SIFMA). Colleen came to DC in 2012 to serve her home state of Missouri in Senator Blunt’s office.

Learn more about WERC here.

MEDIA CONTACT
Luke Bolar
bolar@clearpath.org
(202) 355-3677

ABOUT CLEARPATH
ClearPath (501(c)(3)) was established by businessman Jay Faison in 2014. ClearPath’s vision is that America leads in affordably powering the world with reliable clean energy. ClearPath’s mission is to develop and advance conservative policies that accelerate clean energy innovation. To advance that mission, ClearPath develops cutting-edge policy and collaborates with academics and industry. Learn more at clearpath.org. Follow us on Twitter: @JayFaison1, @powellrich, @ClearPathAction