

PRESS RELEASE
Thursday, March 11, 2021

CLEARPATH

Former World Bank Group Executive Director Representing the United States DJ Nordquist Joins ClearPath Advisory Board

Washington, DC – Thursday, March 11, 2021 – ClearPath announced former World Bank Group Executive Director representing the United States Jennifer D. “DJ” Nordquist has joined its Advisory Board. Currently, Ms. Nordquist is a Fellow at the University of Virginia’s Darden School of Business, where she engages in the Darden classroom as a guest speaker and co-teaches, participates in roundtable discussions and contributes thought leadership articles.

“We are constantly working to make our energy sector cleaner and more reliable here in the U.S. and around the globe, while making the American economy even stronger. We are thrilled DJ Nordquist will bring her expertise to our existing slate of exceptional advisors,” said Rich Powell, Executive Director of ClearPath. “DJ’s 30 years of experience in public policy, government, and global finance will help advise ClearPath on policies that commercialize the cutting-edge clean energy technologies needed to reduce global emissions as quickly and cheaply as possible.”

Ms. Nordquist formerly represented the United States at the Board of Directors of the World Bank Group from 2019-2021, after being confirmed unanimously by the United States Senate. Her work at the Bank focused on energy policy, the COVID response, oversight, information and communication technology, debt, human capital, and gender.

Prior to the World Bank, Ms. Nordquist served as Chief of Staff at the Council of Economic Advisers in the Executive Office of the President where she helped create and manage objective, nonpartisan economic analysis and advice on the development and implementation of a wide range of domestic and international economic policies, such as infrastructure, innovation, tax reform, labor market economics, GDP growth factors, deregulation, the opioids crisis, and cyber.

Previously, she was Chief of Staff for the Economic Studies program at the Brookings Institution where she focused on fiscal and monetary policy, poverty and opportunity, healthcare, economic dynamism, education policy, and family structure. She also served as Assistant Secretary at the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Senior Advisor in the Office of the Federal Coordinator for Gulf Coast Rebuilding, Deputy Chief of Staff at the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and Deputy Assistant Secretary at the US Department of Education.

MEDIA CONTACT

Luke Bolar
bolar@clearpath.org
(202) 355-3677

ABOUT CLEARPATH

ClearPath (501(c)(3)) was established by businessman Jay Faison in 2014. ClearPath's mission is to develop and advance policies that accelerate breakthrough innovations that reduce emissions in the energy and industrial sectors. To advance that mission, we develop cutting-edge policy solutions on clean energy and industrial innovation. An entrepreneurial, strategic nonprofit, ClearPath (501(c)(3)) collaborates with public and private sector stakeholders on innovations in nuclear energy, carbon capture, hydropower, natural gas, geothermal, energy storage, and heavy industry to enable private-sector deployment of critical technologies. Learn more at clearpath.org. Follow us on Twitter: @JayFaison1, @powellrich, @ClearPathAction